- STAR, a peer leadership program that organizes youth to take action against abuse and promote healthy, loving relationships based on equality, respect and trust.
- Coordinating an annual teen dating abuse symposium for hundreds of teens, educators and community activists.
- Participating in agency-wide and community events to support organizational goals.
- Promote safety, independence and healing for victims of domestic violence and dating abuse through hotline services, counseling, support groups, advocacy and/or information referral services.

Qualifications

- Bilingual Spanish required.
- Education: BA/BS/BSW in Counseling, Social Work, Psychology, or School Counseling and/or equivalent combination of education and relevant work experience in crisis intervention, safety planning, or victim services.
- Experience: At least Minimum of one year of experience working with youth, crisis intervention, or related fields. Experience with middle school age groups is a plus.

Skills

- Strong public speaking, public relations, and organizational skills.
- Ability to build rapport with diverse youth populations.
- Experience in counseling and creative curriculum development.
- Familiarity with domestic violence and dating abuse theory, or a willingness to learn.
- Able to work independently and collaboratively within a team.
- Computer proficiency.

Additional Requirements:

- Flexible hours: The role requires availability for early morning workshops, evening meetings, and weekend events.
- Driver's license in good standing and access to a personal vehicle for travel.
